

Gemini

PRODUCTION MANAGEMENT

Gemini Production Management (GPM) Energy Services is a diverse oilfield service company that specializes in providing operational, mechanical and labour personnel to the Oil and Gas industry throughout Central/Northern Alberta and British Columbia. We pride ourselves with providing both ground and heli-portable solutions to our varied and diverse client base. We are currently accepting resumes to fill immediate and upcoming positions in our operations department.

Junior Production Operator/Pilot Operators:

Applicants applying for this position should have at least two (2) years experience in the following:

- Working knowledge of gathering systems, pipeline mitigation and protection practises.
- Artificial lift systems including beam and/or submersible pumps, plunger lifts, siphon systems, etc.
- Facility operations including oil batteries and satellites, compressor stations, dehydration, refrigeration.
- Experience in production monitoring systems (Scada, Zedi, etc.)
- Experience in production reporting (Fieldview, PVR, etc.)

Senior Production Operators/Pilot Operators:

Applicants applying for this position should have at least eight (8) years operational experience and possess the following skills:

- Complete understanding of overall field production operations.
- Monitoring and general maintenance of oil batteries and gas plants, pipeline gathering systems and production wells.
- Current or prior supervisory experiences.
- Ability to monitor, train and mentor junior and intermediate level operations personnel.
- Possess excellent people skills.

Beneficial Skills/Training:

- Production Field/Gas Process Operations
- Alberta Boilers Branch Steam Certifications
- Solis Training Programs, Competency Training

If interested in applying please provide the following:

- Updated resume c/w references (please submit in 'Word' format)
- Helicopter License, if applicable
- Copy of a valid Driver's License and current Driver's Abstract
- Copy of the following safety tickets (H₂S, First Aid, WHMIS & TDG)
- Please indicate if you are willing to work in a remote camp location.

Please forward resumes in confidence to the following email address: operators@geminihelicopters.com or fax to 780-542-4972.